VON BRINCKEN TO TESTIFY FOR U. S.

plea of not guilty and the entering of a plea of guilty in the indictment against former German Consul George Rodiek and former Vice Consul H. B. Schroeder of Honolulu. This statement was ruled out by Judge W. C. Van Fleet.

While constrained under the existing extraordinary conditions to the entry of a plea of guilty in behalf of the defendant George Rodiek and H. A. Schroeder of a technical violation of one of the neutrality laws of the United States, it is but fair, not only to the American citizens of the Hawaiian Islands, among whom they lived and labored so long, but to themselves as well, that the circumstances which prompted such action on their part be stated.

So far as these two defendants are concerned, the matters charged in the indictment occurred long prior to any state of actual or declared war between the United States and Germany, and during a time when a bitter and relentless war was being waged between Great Britain and Germany. The transactions, because of which these two defendants found themselves involved in this indictment, which were exclusively in arranging for the furnishing of provisions and money to the steamer Haverick while at Hilo, and the transmission to her master of sailing orders previously communicated to them, took place during the months of April and May, 1915, and were regarded by them as purely commercial in character involving no branch of any obligation due from either of them to the government of the United States.

RODIEK STILL CLAIMS TO BE LOYAL

"Twenty-seven years ago Rodiek went to the Hawaiian Islands, became an American citizen and married an American woman. He was the resident here in Honolulu of Haelefeld, who has always acted as the local German consul. In September, 1913, he became resident German consul at Honolulu, receiving his exequatur from the Government of the United States. Immediately on the outbreak of the war in August, 1914, becoming apprehensive that his duties as consular representative of Germany might conflict with his duties of American citizenship, he sought advice of counsel and was informed that the retention of his office was not inconsistent with his duties as an American citizen or in violation of the President's proclamation of neutrality. Rodiek continued to serve until diplomatic relations were severed.

"The defendant Rodiek does not concede any delinquency to this country or lack of devotion to its institutions in pleading guilty. His patriotism is evidenced by the purchase of liberty bonds to the extent of $750,000 and large contributions to the American Red Cross.

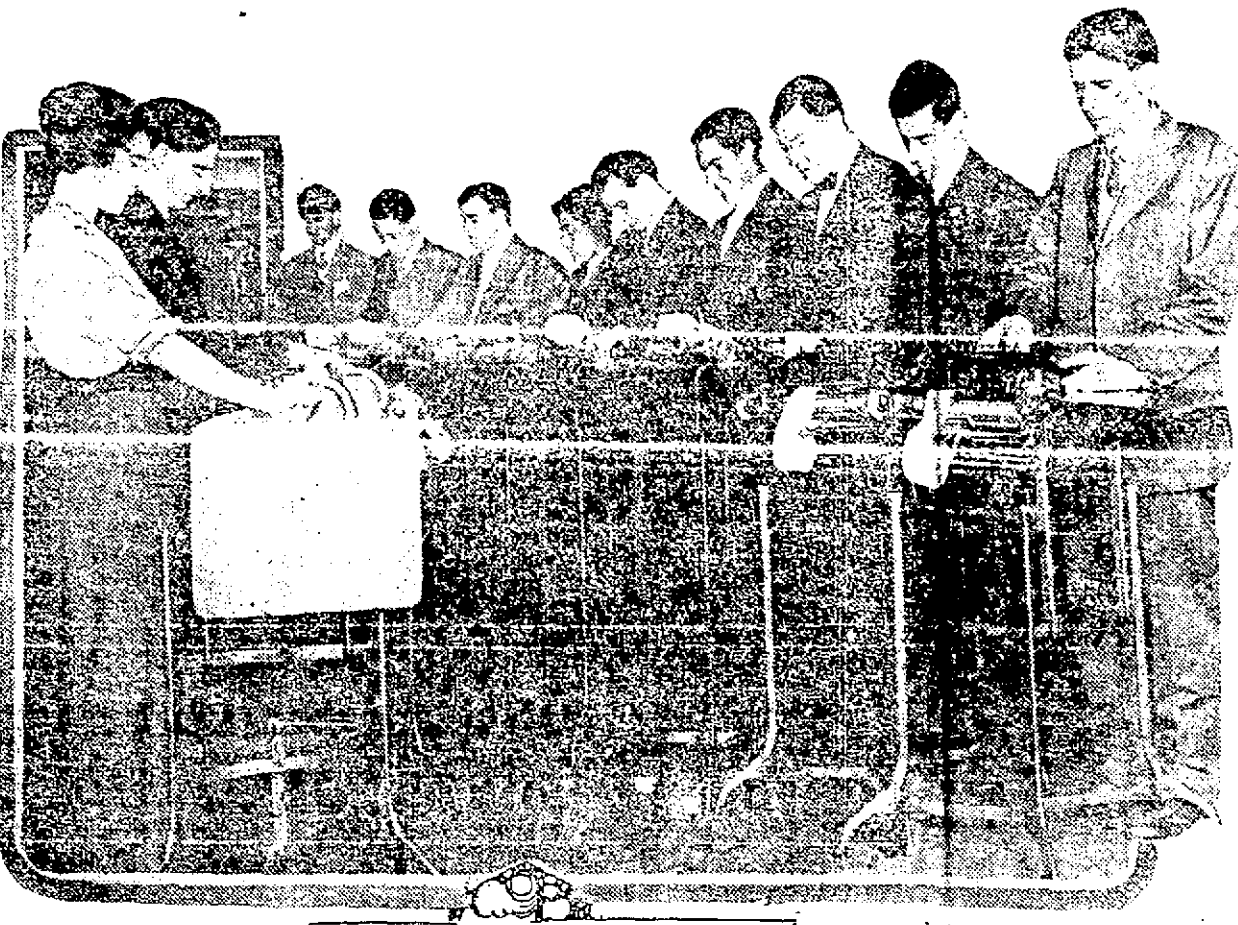

"While consenting under existing circumstances to these pleas of guilty, the defendants are convinced that the testimony hereafter to be produced during the present trial of the other defendants will demonstrate their participation in any of the overt acts was without intent to violate any law of the United States.

"Just before a recess was taken at 12:30 o'clock Hindu defendants complained to their counsel that the interpreter, Rev. E. J. Gould, was not truthfully interpreting the testimony of the witness Kapur, under cross-examination by Rodiek. This was proven by a statement made in broken English by the witness, and Gould was ordered to interpret truthfully in the future.

"At this stage one of the Hindus jumped to his feet and cried out: 'Let us have justice; this is a farce.' Order was restored with a request by Judge Van Fleet that additional deputy marshals be brought into the courtroom to maintain order.

"Freston asked the court to order into custody all the Hindu defendants out on bail, charging that they were interfering with and annoying his Hindu witnesses domiciled at the New

Burroughs Machines Add Election Returns Rapidly

This battery of Burroughs adding and listing machines enabled The TRIBUNE to handle with a minimum of delay the returns from the election and to furnish to the public the first intimation of the result. Without these machines it would have been impossible to accurately compile the returns in anywhere near the brief period in which the task was accomplished. The machines were furnished through the courtesy of D. E. Perkins, sales manager of the company in Oakland.

Battery of Useful Calculators Greatly Aid The Tribune in Securing Correct Results

A large battery of Burroughs adding machines made it possible for The TRIBUNE to accurately count the votes and give The TRIBUNE readers the correct results of all votes cast in the least possible time.

A few years ago when only the straight adding machines were available, it was necessary to have an operator and machine for each candidate. With the latest Burroughs machines used by The TRIBUNE, one operator carried the number of votes cast for the candidates, and had the correct total available at any time.

The machines were furnished by D. E. Perkins, local sales manager for the Burroughs Adding Machine Company.

Who reports a large number of sales of the new up-to-date machine to their old users. Machines are being applied on every kind of figure work. Eighty-seven different models of adding machines are made by the company. Special machines for cost distribution, payroll, bookkeeping, bank bookkeeping, retail grocery and market bookkeeping. In fact, any kind of figure work in an office may be handled by a Burroughs machine with greater efficiency and in about one-half the time required by the old hand method.

The Burroughs offices are located on the second floor of the Perry building, 411 Thirteenth street, and anyone interested is invited to call and see the direct-to-the-ledger posting machines.

CONGRESS BEGINS WORK ON PROBLEMS WORK ON PROBLEMS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Work on the domestic legislation outlined to Congress yesterday by President Wilson was begun today.

Extension of the federal price-fixing power was regarded as the most complex problem. Alien enemy legislation will be considered promptly. A meeting tomorrow of the Senate judiciary committee will take it up, and the committee also will proceed with the soldiers' and sailors' civil rights bill passed by the House last session.

Chairman Newlands of the Senate interstate commerce committee said he soon would confer with President Wilson on the transportation legislation.

Whitcomb Hotel in an endeavor to wean them away from testifying for the prosecution.

This was denied by Attorney Timothy Healy, who represents six of the Hindus.

A recess was then taken, attorneys for the defense went into consultation and announced that they would ask the United States attorney to prove his charges of subornation of witnesses made by him.

ASK U. S. CONTROL OF ALL RAILWAYS OF ALL RAILWAYS

Legislation, State and Federal, has been directed to the fostering of keen competition, and the prevention of just such pooling as now is recommended. This reversal of policy must be accompanied by appropriate legislation which will prevent the punishment of the existing anti-trust laws from falling upon railroads. A suspension of these laws must be arranged.

It is made plain by the commission that its recommendation is distinctly a war measure. It is stated clearly that the vital industries of the country, engaged in turning out the munitions of war, are wholly dependent upon the railroads. For that reason nothing must be left undone which would increase the efficiency of the railroad system.

In his dissenting memorandum, Commissioner McChord says that, if the President under the powers given him in the act of April 23, 1916, does not see fit to take over and operate the railroads, Congress should under its own initiative enact the legislation creating some central body to administer the railroad lines, at least for the period of the war.

In justification of its revolutionary recommendation, the commission says:

"Since the outbreak of the war in Europe, and especially since this country was drawn into that war, it has become increasingly clear that conflict is indispensable to their fullest utilization for the national defense and welfare. They must be drawn, like the individual, from the pursuits of peace and mobilized to win the war.

The commission emphasizes that the recommendation is made necessary by the war and it would not for a lesser reason propose the overturning of the elaborate structure of law and operating practice which for a quarter of a century and more has directed that the opposite policy be pursued.

The element of time is given great importance by the commission, and for the reason speedily action by Congress is to be expected.

The rights and interests of shippers would not be prejudiced by the proposed action, the commission says. While it would be a complete readjustment of the entire transportation system, with the establishment of new rates and terminals and other changes of importance, the Federal Government would see to it that no discriminations should be worked upon the shipper to his prejudice.

However, it is made clear in the brief that under the new regulation the railroad system would be used first for war business and that all non-essential shipments would have to wait their turn.

In view of the fact that the Railroads War Board, the War Service Commission, the National Industrial Traffic League and other voluntary commissions have for a year been working at Washington to put the railroad system on a more efficient basis and have not succeeded to such an extent as to make such action imperative, it may be expected that the alternative of the commission—absolute government seizure—will be adopted.

WAR RESOLUTION COMES BY FRIDAY

lutions committee, he should have charge of the Austrian war resolution. Senator Hitchcock, the next Democrat of the committee, handled the German war resolution.

The Senate's foreign relations committee, which will handle the resolution, will be in conference today.

SENTIMENT FOR WAR ON ALL ENEMIES

The sentiment for including Turkey and Bulgaria in the list of recognized enemies persisted and there was promise of some attempt to amend the resolution. The committee of both houses, however, will be guided by the Senate.

While Congress is working on the actual declaration of war the executive departments of the government are setting in motion the machinery which will make the declaration effective.

The department of justice began taking steps for disposition of the great number of alien enemies the war declaration will create. The job is much more difficult than it was in the case of Germany. There are in the United States many subjects of Austria-Hungary who are opposed to the government and sympathetic with the cause of the United States. Many of them are Czechs, Bohemians and others of the races which have been oppressed by the Austrian government.

The department of labor, which has custody of alien civilians classed as enemies, also is making its preparations to care for them, probably in camps.

The department of commerce, the war trade board and the other agencies charged with enforcement of the trading with the enemy act have only extensions of steps already taken.

Declaration of war on Austria is regarded also as the signal for the extension of American help to Italy. With a declaration of war on Austria it is left for the United States to take the fullest sense.

VATICAN SAYS REPORT IS ATROCIOUS

LONDON, Dec. 5.—Cardinal Bourne has received a letter from Cardinal Gaspari, the papal secretary of state, answering the Post's accusation that the Vatican was implicated in disruptive propaganda in Italy and is unneutral.

Cardinal Gaspari declares that the accusation is an "atrocious calumny" and says that the hierarchy and clergy in Italy have given the most open and most generous help to the country's cause, and have received unreserved praise from the Italian parliament and government.

The cardinal adds that long before the issue of the papal peace note, which is said to have been among the chief causes of the army's lowered morale, the clergy generally and the army chaplains particularly were laboring against the disruptive propaganda which had been begun and was reported to be giving unrest to the civil authorities.

PAINED AT CHARGES.
The Vatican, the cardinal declares, is pained and indignant at the Post's charges, and regards them as insulting. Referring to the accusation that the Vatican repudiated the Austrian cause, Cardinal Gaspari reaffirms the full and correct neutrality of the holy see. He says that complaints have been made in Central Europe that the Vatican is looking excessively toward the west, and is trying to regain its former position in France and to obtain a wider influence in the British Isles and North America. He adds:

"If some nations seem to be more favored by the papal notice, certainly they were not Germany and Austria-Hungary, but those of the entente, particularly France and Belgium. The peace aimed at was not a German peace."

Cardinal Bourne tells the Post that Pope Benedict has been urged from each side to break with the governments of the other side, "thus throwing confusion into the religious life, now more precious than ever before, of millions of families, and punishing the peoples for the mistakes and misdeeds of their leaders."

NOT DEPENDENT.
"The supreme pontiff," he concludes, "does not depend for instruction upon those who long before the war worked to diminish the authority, which they are now invoking, nor does the holy see shape its action by the flickering lights of human praises or blames."

The Post, in an editorial examining Cardinal Gaspari's statement, virtually reiterates its original accusation and cites incidents which it regards as proofs.

ROME, Dec. 5.—Cardinal Gaspari, the papal secretary of state today denied that Pope Benedict had addressed a communication to President Wilson, to Secretary of State Lansing or to any government setting forth that there were extraordinary circumstances regarding the last Vatican peace note.

The Holy See, however, is occupied by the Russian situation, the cardinal said, and expects to make a statement relative to the report of the publication of Russian diplomatic documents when the correct text has been secured.

RUSH RECRUITING.
Arrangements have been made at the local recruiting office of the army to enlist its quota of 10,000 men wanted by the government for the aviation section before December 15. The necessity is considered a vital one by the war department, according to Lieutenant Colonel John H. Gardner, recruiting officer for this district.

"We earnestly appeal," he says, "to the manufacturing concerns to send us men of mechanical ability. We need them in every branch of the aviation section. Our aero and balloon squadrons must be the world's best to win. The sooner the applicant signs up and gets away to his regiment the better his opportunity to go the cream of these 10,000 jobs the government has to offer."

JUDGE APPOINTED.
Judge William H. Waste was appointed chairman of the legal advisory board of Alameda county to assist draft registrants, according to word received today at the governor's office in Sacramento from Washington, D. C.

The board will be composed of three men. In the message from Washington was contained the approval of chairmen for boards in every county of the state.

ROBS LETTER BOX.
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—The letter box at the Y. M. C. A., 220 Golden Gate avenue, was robbed last night of $40 in an envelope belonging to John Ryan, 167 Eddy street.

According to Alfred Winsor, night secretary, the theft occurred during the tabulating of returns of the recent Red Triangle drive for the establishment of Y. M. C. A. branches at the front.

Congress Must Give Billions McAdoo Urges Strict Economy War Shows Prosperity of Nation

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Congress was informed by Secretary McAdoo in his annual report submitted today that $5,128,203,793 must be provided in addition to funds from taxes and bond issues already authorized in order to make estimated receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1918, equal disbursements. If this deficit is met by a new issue of bonds, the total amount of securities to be issued in the next seven months is estimated at $9,000,000,000.

For the next fiscal year, ending June 30, 1919, the estimated excess of disbursements over receipts is $7,627,973,980.

PEOPLE MUST SAVE TO AID COUNTRY

So far the nation has borne the financial burdens of the war well, says Secretary McAdoo, owing to healthy business conditions, and the valuable aid of the established Federal reserve system. In the war, however, increasingly greater habits of economy must be developed by individuals and business institutions, the secretary declares, and "business as usual" cannot be adopted as the guiding principle of the war. People must save and invest in government securities to avoid postponing victory.

With this admonition, Secretary McAdoo proceeds to cite the enormous figures of government receipts and expenditures which are the fruit of war times.

Total estimated receipts for the current fiscal year are $12,580,723,300, which, with a balance in the treasury last June 30 of $1,066,983,361, makes a total of $13,647,706,661. Most of the receipts, or $5,686,000,000, are from sale of bonds and war savings certificates; ordinary receipts are $3,880,000,000, largely from war taxes, and the Panama Canal income is $7,000,000.

Ordinary disbursements are estimated at $12,318,955,220, leaving a public debt disbursement of $321,000,000, and Panama Canal expenses, $23,598,000, making total estimated disbursements $12,542,553,220.

In order to allow for a balance in the general fund of about $500,000,000 next June 30, Congress must authorize raising of about $5,640,000,000 additional funds. This figure, together with the $3,666,000,000 of authorized but unissued Liberty bonds and $665,000,000 estimated receipts from war savings, make the $9,969,000,000 which Secretary McAdoo believes Americans must loan the government between now and June 30, 1918.

For the next fiscal year, ending June 30, 1919, the estimated receipts are $13,776,000,000, and disbursements at $12,804,034,440, exclusive of allied loans. This makes a $9,271,000,000 excess of disbursements. If the present rate of loans to allies is continued in the 1918-19 fiscal year, $6,000,000,000 additional would be required. Estimated interest on bonds to be issued that year is $385,000,000, and estimated expense of floating the bond issues $28,000,000.

FOURTEEN BILLIONS IN NEW WAR BONDS

Thus if the deficit is to be met by bonds, $14,040,000,000 worth must be floated between July 1, 1918, and June 30, 1919, in addition to receipts from war savings.

While these figures represent the situation as it appears today, the secretary says, "it should be borne in mind that the exigencies of the future may cause changes, particularly with regard to the estimates for the War and Navy Departments." The estimates on which the secretary bases his figures are made by the various government departments.

The outstanding fact apparent from these stupendous figures is that the cost of the war to the American people is increasing rapidly. For the two years ending June 30, 1918, will be at least $35,000,000,000.

To the great task facing the country, Secretary McAdoo calls the people with these words:

"What is of supreme importance in the readjustment that must take place is that our people shall be impressed with the necessity of economizing in the consumption of articles of clothing, food and fuel, and of every other thing which constitutes a drain upon the available supplies."

materials and resources of the country. Everything wasted now is little short of criminal.

"So far as I have been able to observe, the American people are not sufficiently aroused to the necessity of economy and of saving in this really serious time, not only in the life of America, but of the nations of the world. Up to the present there has been a relatively small denial of pleasures, comforts and conveniences on the part of the average citizen. It is a saving on the part of the government, supplies in the country, with almost the same freedom as before. America came into the war. This cannot continue without serious hurt to the nation and to the world. The great financial operations of the government cannot be carried forward successfully unless the people of the United States economize in every possible direction, save their money and lend it to the government."

It is easy to visualize the course of a dollar saved from waste and invested in government bonds. First it goes to the government, a loan for the war; second, it is expended by the government for food, clothing and ammunition which go directly to a soldier or sailor whose fighting strength is kept up by the food, whose body is kept warm by the clothing, and whose enemy is hit by the ammunition. It has not been expended in the purchase of needless food and clothing for the man at home, and is, therefore, released for the use of the soldier; it is saved wealth to the man at home and can be loaned to his government at interest, with resulting benefit to himself and to his government.

DENOUNCES NEEDLESS SELLING OF BONDS

Secretary McAdoo denounced purchasers of Liberty bonds who sell their bonds when they do not imperatively need money.

"It is by actually lending money to the government and not by merely promising it and shifting the load to some one else," he said, "that the citizen really helps in the time of need. He who does not mean to discourage legitimate trading in government securities."

Secretary McAdoo expressed the hope that additional funds to be raised during the balance of the year be by bond issues rather than by taxation, saying: "It is my earnest conviction that the general economy of the country should be permitted to readjust itself to the new revenue authorities in consideration should be given to the imposition of additional tax burdens."

Of the possibility that interest rates on future Liberty bond issues might be raised, the secretary said: "If a situation should develop where the government could not sell convertible and partly tax exempt bonds upon a 4 per cent basis, it would, I believe, become necessary to seriously consider further revenue legislation. In my judgment an increase in the rate of interest on such bonds would be extremely unwise and hurtful."

Secretary McAdoo disclosed that he intends to recommend to Congress later in the session constructive and regulatory laws to prevent capital from going into public or private enterprises unnecessary for the war.

"It may also become necessary," he added, "to concert some constructive measures through which essential credits may be provided for those industries and enterprises in the country essential to the efficient and successful conduct of the war. The subject requires the best thought and study. It is receiving the most earnest consideration."

AMERICA'S SUCCESS IN CONFLICT CERTAIN

"The courage and resources of the nation are so abundant that America's success in the war is beyond question if they are properly organized and intelligently used. The economic and financial condition of the country was never so strong and America's spirit was never more aroused to the importance and necessity of going forward, resolute and unflinching, to the accomplishment of the great task to which God has called us."

The Federal reserve system received Secretary McAdoo's enthusiastic praise for its part in the war financing program. He pleaded for further strengthening of the reserve system by the entrance of state banks and trust companies.

"Intelligent men all over the country," he said, "are beginning to realize that the financial power of the United States should be strengthened to the utmost limit if we are to meet successfully the tremendous strain upon our resources occasioned by our own part in the war and by the credit which we are extending that we should extend to the foreign governments and to the allies in the war, and if we are to be equal to the demands in large measure, at least, of world leadership which will inevitably be thrust upon us as a result of this war."

"Financial strength can come alone from a consolidation of the financial powers of the country under one homogeneous system. It cannot be had under the present arrangement, involving as it does forty-nine separate banking systems or banking controls in the United States."

FEDERAL AND STATE BANKS PROSPEROUS

"In the federal system we have the one cohesive and powerful financial organization in the country. In addition to the federal system we have 48 systems, authorized and administered under the laws of each of the states of the Union. This is a serious element of weakness and will be proven so when the test of a great responsibility and need comes. We must be prepared for a larger measure of international demand upon our resources in the future than ever before in the past. Self-interest alone should compel our capable state banks in the country to take membership in the federal reserve system. But, in addition to that, in this grave time of national peril, patriotism should combine with self-interest to make them take that course."

"It is my earnest hope that the state banks of the United States will see this question in its proper light. They have been joining the federal reserve system recently in greater numbers than ever before, but progress should now be even more rapid. The federal reserve law is not only beneficial to state banks that they get nothing but advantages by joining the system, while they are bound to suffer serious disadvantages, especially in time of need and trial, if they remain outside."

The secretary disclosed that neutral countries have entered cordially upon negotiations looking to stabilizing foreign exchange rates without shipping

SAVS RUSS WILL FIGHT NEXT SPRING

LONDON, Dec. 5.—The situation in Russia is unique in history, according to the Petrograd correspondent of the Morning Post, writing Saturday, but it is not at all advisable to attempt to raise the curtain on the mysteries of the "Russian drama." The correspondent insists that "Russia will fight hereafter it is necessary to allow the necessary latitude by the puzzled allies, and next spring it will put new armies in the field to fight the invaders with a success that marked the Russian revolution of 1917."

"In the meantime," he adds, "the situation is extremely curious. Some force which is above or beyond the contending parties is putting the spokes into the wheels of all of them."

The correspondent instances the various interferences with the administration, without, however, elucidating his suggestion.

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 5.—Four republics have been set up in Russia since the Romanoff dynasty was overthrown. Travelers arriving at Haparanda today expressed the opinion that the Russia of the future would be composed of a series of separate states, loosely attached to each other, but with absolute autonomy.

The fifth republic government to be established probably will be set up in Helsinki for Finland.

The four republics are Russia proper, with the central government at Petrograd; Siberia, with the capital at Tomsk; Crimea, with the seat of power at Sebastopol; and Ukraine, with the capital at Kiev.

It is reported at Kuban, in the Caucasus, is on the point of seceding.

from the United States the gold which has been accumulated here in the last few years. At the time he prepared his report none of the negotiations had been completed.

"The government's system of forbidding gold exports except under license by the Federal Reserve Board," Secretary McAdoo explained, "the exportation of gold has not been permitted except in those cases in which unusual circumstances have seemed to justify the issue of licenses for its export. The department has not, however, rested content with a negative policy of prohibition, but has initiated a series of negotiations having for purpose the substitution of a more constructive policy, which, while holding the necessary for large exports of gold, would yet stabilize the exchanges between the United States and neutral countries."

Tones the Nerves
The gratifying results attending the faithful use of the new medicinal combination, Hood's Sarsaparilla, before eating and Peptonin after eating, are seen in purer blood, stronger nerves, improved condition of the whole system.

The results that make this course of treatment the most economical for sufferers from impure, impoverished blood, and the steady nerves—no other accomplishment so much for each cent expended.
Hood's Sarsaparilla and Peptonin aid each other, and to take both is to derive a four-fold benefit.
If a laxative is needed in connection with them, the gentle and thorough Hood's Pills should be used.—Advertisement.

BIRDMEN TO STRIKE BLOW FOR ITALIANS

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN ITALY, Dec. 5.—Among the troops and units that have arrived in Italy with the British and French armies is a large group of aviators who are impatiently waiting to get into action. The British have sent a large contingent of fliers, half of whom are young Canadians and Americans, who have been doing scout work in Flanders and Northern France.

The squadron, which expects to be given work at the front very soon, is proving an attraction for the Italians. While awaiting orders the fliers are loitering in trim by practicing over the town where they are billeted. There is scarcely an hour, but that the team of at least two and generally four or more motors is heard above the town and every public square is filled with sports taking upward as the young aviators bank and slide and spiral and twist.

The British aviators are much younger than their French comrades, whose numerous decorations attest their long experience. Both groups are composed of picked men who have had credit

MELODY BIRDS ON SALE AT MARKET, BUT NONE TO EAT

The commission market was filled with melody this morning and canaries are quoted at $7.50. A score of yellow canaries, all fine singers, were a unique arrival. They were sold in a commission house for the first time in history—for musical purposes only. They won't be eaten.

A customer of the Lacey & Ziemer branch raised the birds—and he also raises market produce—which the Oakland firm handles. Today he drove in with a load of vegetables, surmounted by the cages of canaries.

"You might as well sell these, too, along with the vegetables," he remarked.

While the canaries are out of a commission man's line, the Oakland firm is trying it. Canaries don't cost as much to feed as chickens, anyway.

training in fighting the Germans in the air.

The Canadians and Americans might entertain their comrades and crowds of curious Italians by holding song festivals at their hotel. American songs are sung mostly with an Italian officer who has spent several years in England and America, as the pianist.

One effect of the arrival of the French and British in Italy has been the drop in price of Franco-Italian exchange, which went up when the Austro-German offensive was in the full flush of its success.

ELECTION MEANS BYE-BYE DUCKS

Some of Oakland's champion duck hunters will be unable to get their own ducks in the next few weeks unless they pay the full market price for them. This is one result of yesterday's election.

Walter Harris, commission man and member of several local clubs of duck hunters, is responsible. In the various gun clubs he made bets—a five-dollar bet against the hunt in ducks. About twenty local nincoms took the recall end of the wagers. Now they all owe Harris the ducks.

"I'll put them on the market as fast as they come in," remarked Harris, "or sell them back to the hunters at the market price."

Several front bets were paid off on the commission market today. George Fountain bet a sack of onions against the recall, against a bunch of bananas offered by Bob Rogers. The strength was with Fountain's bet.

George Ling is exceedingly happy, for he is $250 to the good as the result of a "book" he made among the market men who desired to bet on Weeks or Dutton.

MAYOR RE-ELECTED.
NEWPORT, R. I., Dec. 5.—Clark Purdick was re-elected mayor after a campaign in which his opponent, Dr. David E. Flynn, adopted as a slogan, "Clean up Newport."

SEATTLE'S PLEA MADE IN VAIN

CAMP LEWIS, Tacoma, Dec. 5.—Secretary of War Newton D. Baker will not interfere with Major-General Greene's order closing Seattle to soldiers of the national army, according to word received here by Dr. Henry Suzzallo, president of the University of Washington. The matter of reopening the city is to be left entirely in the hands of the military authorities at the cantonment.

Dr. Suzzallo had asked Secretary Baker if he would rescind Greene's order provided that Superior Judge Kenneth Mackintosh became chief of police and supervised the current and future police force. Lister certified the city to be clean. This program could not be carried out, however, even if Secretary Baker had approved, for Judge Mackintosh has announced that he will not consider the position now.

Civilians who are observing meekness and wheelless days will be pleased to know that the Liberty boys are making the same sacrifices. The 250 men who are learning to cook and the 100 or more officers and civilians who are at the cooks' and bakers' mess will manage to get along without meat nine days a month and without wheat bread for an equal number of days.

On Friday of this week the Third, Fourth and Sixth Infantry, composed of Southern California men, will try a meatless day. If the experiment proves a success, the day will be observed weekly. The cooks and bakers are already going without meat twice a week.

Lieutenant Colonel David L. Stone, who was in charge of the construction of Camp Lewis, was tendered a farewell dinner last evening by business men of Tacoma on the eve of his departure for Camp Greene. "You cannot honor me without honoring every man who has worked with me—even the least laborer," said Colonel Stone in replying to tributes of the speakers.

The football team of the Ninety-first division has received an offer of a game in Los Angeles on Christmas day, either with the team of the One Hundred and Forty-fifth Artillery or of the Thirty-sixth Division or the marine team of San Francisco. Captain T. G. Cook, camp director of athletics, will decide today whether or not the offer will be accepted.

DRAFT MATERIAL TO BE ENLISTED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Draft registrants whose classification and order number are so low that they do not fall within the current quotas of their local boards may at their own request be immediately inducted into the military service, Provost Marshal General Crowder today announced.

Upon filing with his local board a waiver of all claims of deferred classification, a man in a deferred class may be examined and sent to camp immediately, although not as part of his board's quota, as this would violate the provisions of the selective service law which prohibit substitution. Where the claims had been must accompany that of the registrant, but waivers for the children or mentally unfit persons, will not be recognized.

Any registrant may enlist in the navy or marine corps, General Crowder said, without exception to a recruiting officer of a certificate by his local board that his class and order numbers are so low that he does not fall within the current quota. Subsequently upon presentation to the board of his enlistment certificate he will be placed in class 5, the discard class, on the ground that he is in the naval service.

The new regulations also provide that by permission of the surgeon general of the army and under his regulation any medical student, hospital interne, dentist, dental student, veterinarian or veterinary surgeon may enlist in the medical reserve corps and he will be placed in the discard class.

A registrant also may be commissioned in the army, navy or marine corps, or appointed an army field clerk, regardless of his classification or order number.

It was pointed out today by General Crowder that registrants have until December 15 to enlist in the military forces.

HE KISSES FLAG

HUGO, Colo., Dec. 5.—Henry W. Dutsch, believed to be a traveling salesman, will be taken to Denver today to be turned over to federal authorities for alleged seditious utterances. He is under guard of two local youths appointed by a committee of vigilantes after Dutsch had been led at the end of a rope to a spot a mile from town late last night, stripped of his clothing and given a painful application of the tar and feather treatment by 100 angry citizens.

Dutsch was also forced to get on his knees and kiss the Stars and Stripes, and after his clothing had been restored he was decorated with the sign "Back to Berlin."

FLYERS KILLED

TORONTO, Dec. 5.—Two members of the Royal Flying Corps in training here were instantly killed when they were struck by a falling airplane driven by Cadet J. H. Bacon of Grand Forks, N. D. They are: Corporal Frank E. Mercer, aged 18, Toronto; Private Harold D. McNeill, 20, Kincardine, Ontario, air mechanic.

The two men were riding a motorcycle with a side car in the vicinity of the airfield at Armour Heights when the plane fell and struck them. The aviator escaped without serious injury.

NANCY IS RAIDED

PARIS, Dec. 5.—Another German spy net in Nancy, in which three persons were wounded, was reported by the war office today.

Battling and artillery were the only war activities reported in the official statement. Arrested were three German spies. East of Rheims the French carried out a successful reconnaissance, taking prisoners. Artillery fire was reported on the right bank of the Meuse.

TO RESPECT SWISS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The United States government has again reiterated a message pleading itself to respect Swiss neutrality. Germany recently spread word that when America's full force had reached the west front it was the purpose of the United States to govern Switzerland. The message was designed to counteract the propaganda.

ORDER ARRESTS

LODAR, Dec. 5.—The military revolutionary committee in Lodar, according to a Reuters dispatch from the Russian capital, has ordered the internment at Kronstadt of all those who signed the manifesto issued Sunday in the name of the provisional government. The signers, however, all have left Petrograd.

BUILD TEN SHIPS

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 5.—Ten 950-ton steel steamships, to cost $16,500,000, will be built here by the G. M. Standifer Construction Company, according to word reaching the Portland office of the company from Washington today. The contracts have been signed by the United States shipping board and the work of constructing a new plant at which to build the vessels will be started at once. The plant will cost upwards of $1,000,000 in it.

OFFICER SUICIDE

NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 5.—Lieutenant-Commander Richard B. Williams, a naval surgeon, committed suicide after being relieved from duty for treatment of his eyes. Commander Williams, relatives said, had feared the loss of his eyesight. He was 42 years old.

His home was in Norfolk.

BILLY WOULD HUG

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 5.—A reference by Billy Sunday to President Wilson's message to Congress was the signal for ten thousand people to spring to their feet and cheer the President for several minutes here.

"I wish," declared Sunday, "that I was close enough to Washington to throw my arms about the neck of the President and thank him for that great speech today."

Resinol

heals sick skins quickly

Don't wait for time to heal that eruption. "Oh, it will get well anyhow!" you say? Perhaps it will, and perhaps it won't. Maybe it will get worse instead. And think of the discomfort and embarrassment it causes you even now.

Isn't it better to get rid of the trouble by using Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap? Doctors prescribe the Resinol skin-treatment constantly, so you need not hesitate to use it. Resinol usually stops itching instantly.

Resinol Ointment is so nearly sterile that it can be used on exposed surfaces without attracting undue attention. Contains nothing that could irritate the tenderest skin. All druggists sell Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. You'd better try them!

IT'S YOUR DUTY

It's Your Privilege
to make your Xmas gift to the Soldiers of Freedom who fight for you

President Wilson has called upon two great Christian agencies—the Knights of Columbus and the Young Men's Christian Association—to direct the social, recreational, educational, mental and moral welfare work among the soldiers and sailors of America's fighting forces at home and abroad.

They provide the restraining influences of home and faith. Both are working hand in hand and heart to heart in closest fraternity. Both are asking for your assistance, that the burden may be more easily borne and the wants more fully supplied.

How much will you give to protect and comfort these young men when temptation, solitude and homesickness threaten them?

WASTE IS NOT CHECKED AT STANFORD

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Dec. 5.—Dancing as usual, with customary extravagances of flowers, candy, taxicabs, formal garb and expensive decorations have not been discarded by students in compliance with pledges to economy during the war, according to the "Illustrated Review," issued by Stanford students today.

Nobody, the Review finds, has sacrificed anything to a notable degree, and men are worse than girls in that they are more miserly in subscribing to war funds. Four-fifths of the 500 women at the University subscribed $600 while $2285 was given by approximately 1000 men.

WITNESS GETS $250 REWARD—BUT JOB IS GONE

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—Ah Frank is $250 richer today by an order of the Federal Court, but Chin John Wai, Chinese fisherman boss, is in jail and out double the amount as the result of Ah Frank turning traitor to those of his fellow fishermen who love the fun of the poppy. Chin kept the crew of the fishing craft, Curran, in good humor by supplying them with opium, and when he was arrested last July by Inspector J. W. Smith of Piedmont he had twenty-two five-tael tins in his quarters aboard the steamer. When the case was called today before Circuit Judge W. W. Morrow Chin was sentenced to thirty days in jail in addition to the fine of $500. Then an infrequently invoked law was applied with Ah Frank went out with his reward. His former mates say that he will not go fishing in the north again.

SCHOOL PLAYS TO AID WAR VICTIMS

Four one-act plays will be presented by the Dramatic Club of the Technical Evening High School this evening and tomorrow evening in the school auditorium for the benefit of the child victims of the war. The entire casts are drawn from the membership of the school, and the costumes and special scenery are the work of the students. The plays to be given are Lord Dunsany's "The Golden Doom," Constance D'Arcy Mackay's "Ashes of Roses," William C. Mills' satire comedy "Food" and "Cops' Court" by L. H. Haines, a member of the high school faculty. Those who will take part in the performance are:

Olive Gordon, Emmet S. Husted, May Russell Gordon, Marie Petermann, Leon Dunning, Philip M. Fisher Jr., Clarence E. Peters, Paul Cunningham, Louise Kent, Philip Maho, Virginia Harrington, Juliana Tarlton, Josephine Tarlton, Katherine Congdon, Cecile Root, Effie Humphrey, Myrtle Leonard, Gertrude A. Tasto, Gilda Naas and Lydia Ouer.

NEW SUITE IS OF WEST WESTERN

"A California Suite," a new symphonic work, by Frederick Jacobi, the young and gifted local composer, will be the novelty of the fifth pair of regular concerts by the San Francisco Symphony orchestra tomorrow and Sunday afternoons in the Cort theater. The first concert of the pair is to be given tomorrow afternoon instead of the customary Friday in order that the theater may be free for the American Red Cross theatrical benefit on that day.

Jacobi's latest work aims in a series of tone-paintings to suggest romantic and colorful days of the old Spanish regime. It is in four movements: Carmelo, Fiesta in Monterey, Dolores and Easter Sunday.

"Pie in the Sky," given here in 1916, proved to be of originality and interesting orchestration. Jacobi studied abroad with Paul Hoen and in New York with Hansen Goldmark and Rafael Joseffy. In 1912, he was assistant conductor under Alfred Hertz in the Metropolitan opera house.

Beethoven's symphony No. 1 in C major, which has never been given by the San Francisco orchestra, Cherubini's overture to "Andromeda" and the stirring Berlin overture, "Carnaval romain," will be the other numbers on the program.

TO VOTE TUESDAY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Nation-wide prohibition and nation-wide woman suffrage constitutional amendments will be voted on in the House judiciary committee next Tuesday.

Marguerite Clark Is Star in the Famous "Sub Ueb" Film at New T. & D. Theater.

Just as millions read the famous stories thousands will see Marguerite Clark in "Bab's Burglar," at the New T. & D. theater this week, where the screened favorite has taken one of the famous "sub deb" roles as her starring vehicle. Marguerite Clark is the screen's most popular star. Mary Roberts Rinehart is one of the country's most brilliant authors. The result, as seen at the T. & D., is intensely humorous and entertaining release.

"Bab's Burglar" is entertainingly unforgotten and its action is of that rapidity that does not allow a dull moment. Marguerite Clark's portrayal of the vivacious boarding school girl who can't live on a thousand a year is admirably done with only that touch of drollery that a star can give to her roles. Bab is her characteristic self in "Bab's Burglar." She drives a racing car at break-neck speed, overturns a milk wagon and when complications pile up too fast and her success seems gone, she attempts to replenish it by capturing a burglar. The result is she spoils a contemporary elegant and older sister and is finally rescued by an indulgent father.

The drama of O. Henry's stories will never die. Visualized through the screen they have proven the magnet to thousands. There is another release of the famous author's stories on the T. & D. program this week, together with a Pathé news picture which gives to the eye what the greatest mind has given to the ear. The Pathé news picture is "The Mystery of the T. & D. Theater" is another program of music especially selected and given into the hands of a first-class director of the T. & D. symphony orchestra. Allen Lane, the organist, is featured in a new solo, "Sling Me Love's Lullaby."

PRESIDENT WILSON STATES AMERICA'S WAR AIMS AND PEACE CONDITIONS.

If to approximate the mind and soul of a nation is the true measure of an official act, the message which President Wilson yesterday read before the Congress of the United States will live as one of the most notable and powerful documents in the history of nations.

The President went before the legislative body perfectly clear that in the present session of Congress "our whole attention and energy should be concentrated on the vigorous, rapid and successful prosecution of the great task of winning the war."

That is the wish and the demand of the people of the country: the President has endorsed it in concise terms and unimpeachable earnestness. To win the war is more than a hope: it is the vital necessity of the nation, and whoever is against it is a traitor or an enemy.

Much has been said—dishonestly or ignorantly said—about our aims and peace conditions. Demands have been voiced for a definition of our war aims. Although these might have been ignored, because the objects of the war had already been adequately described, and because most of the demands might be traced to Teutonic inspiration, the President defined our purposes in such a manner that henceforth no one can have the slightest doubt about them. Here are his own words:

First—That this intolerable thing of which the masters of Germany have shown us the ugly face, this menace of combined intrigue and force which we now see so clearly as the German power, a thing without conscience or honor or capacity for covenanted peace, must be crushed, and, if it be not utterly brought to an end, at least shut out from the friendly intercourse of the nations.

Second—That when this thing and its power are indeed defeated and the time comes that we can discuss peace—when the German people have spokesmen whose word we can believe, and when those spokesmen are ready in the name of their people to accept the common judgment of the nations as to what shall henceforth be the basis and covenant for the life of the world—we shall be willing and glad to pay the full price for peace and pay it ungrudgingly.

These statements are somewhat general, but the German government will not be at a loss to understand their significance. It was unnecessary to describe in detail the evil "German power" for the benefit of the American people; they have a lively memory of its manifestations. They recall that before we went to war American lives were lost on twenty merchant vessels; that 226 American citizens, many of them women and children, had lost their lives by the action of German submarines without the faintest color of international right. They know of the outrages committed on American territory by the criminals of the German diplomatic service and under orders of the German general staff—while we were still a peaceful nation. They know of the plots to destroy their lives, their property and to poison their minds.

But President Wilson was admirably explicit in detailing the conditions of peace.

"Autocracy must first be shown the utter futility of its claims to power or leadership in the modern world."

The peace we make must remember the great wrong Germany has committed.

The sinister German masters have done a great wrong to Belgium which must be repaired. They must deliver "the once fair land and happy peoples of Belgium and Northern France from the Prussian conquest and the Prussian menace."

They must also deliver the peoples of Austria-Hungary, the peoples of the Balkans and the peoples of Turkey, alike in Europe and Asia, from the impudent and alien domination of the Prussian military and commercial autocracy.

While there will be no demands for annexations or punitive indemnities, there must be reparation for the criminal wrongs done.

But in holding these objects as the measure of American victory, President Wilson would not impair or rearrange the Austro-Hungarian empire; he would see that the peoples of that empire cease to be vassals, politically and industrially, of the German empire. Neither does the United States intend any wrong against the German empire; it merely insists that the people raise up a government responsible to them alone in the place of the present Potsdam gang of military dictators—assassins, liars and thieves, "without conscience or honor or capacity for covenanted peace."

The peace we make "will be full impartial justice—justice done at every point and to every nation that the final settlement must effect, our enemies as well as our friends."

But, briefly and pointedly, there can be no peace with Wilhelm II, head of the ruling hierarchy of Hohenzollern. And if, after the war is over, "the German people should still be obligated to live under intriguing masters interested to disturb the peace of the world, men whom other peoples cannot trust, it will be impossible to admit the German people to the partnership of nations, to the free economic intercourse which must inevitably spring out of the other partnerships of a real peace."

These are righteous, attainable conditions for which we are fighting. We cannot accept less. We cannot attain a peace worthy the name in any other way "with uplifted eyes and unbroken spirits."

President Wilson continues to maintain a generous attitude toward the German people and to exculpate them from the hideous crimes of their government. There are many who will not follow him to this length, but in view of the fact that modern kultur is itself a part of the cunningly laid Prussian Pan-German plot, his view may prove ultimately correct. Furthermore, the terms which President Wilson lays down contemplates that the German people must repudiate their views erected on the philosophy that might is right, that necessity knows no law, that the end justifies the means, that there is no such thing as the law of nations.

Congress will accept the President's message as its guide and the inspiration of its work during the present session. It will do everything possible to advance a victorious conclusion of the war. In this it will have the unanimous support of the country.

WAR WITH AUSTRIA.

Declaration of a state of war with Austria-Hungary, which the President recommended in his message to Congress, is merely an act of formality. Had such a declaration been a matter of first importance Congress would have been assembled in special session before now.

We have been at war with Austria's ally and master for eight months, putting our resources against Austria's military forces. Yet, although diplomatic relations were long ago severed, we have technically been at peace with that government. In the meantime there have been sufficient provocations for a declaration of war from either government, and it is cause for some speculation that Austria has not taken advantage of some of them.

However, acknowledgment of a formal state of war is timely. It will give the United States more ample control over potential enemy agents in this country by declaring Austrian citizens alien enemies. It might be well also to put Bulgarian and Turkish citizens residing within our territories in a similar category, but that can quickly be attended to if found to be actually necessary.

While Austria-Hungary, under German compulsion, endorsed the Kaiser's decree of ruthless submarine warfare, and at the same time broke off diplomatic negotiations when we declared war against her ally, there has been signs that the Vienna government was willing to avoid becoming a formal enemy of America. If such a feeling existed, however, it was fundamentally selfish—due to a wish not to have any more friends of democracy at the peace conference than possible.

The formal status of war with Austria will clear the way for smooth action in many domestic matters and will greatly hearten Italy in her fight at our side.

THE RECALL AGAIN REPUDIATED.

The result of the recall election in Oakland yesterday was similar to that of nearly every other city in the country attempting to invoke the recall. It is the third time that the recall has been decisively defeated in Oakland—the first against former Mayor Frank K. Mott and the second against Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Jackson. The people will stand a great deal of maladministration rather than resort to such drastic measures.

The recall, thought to be a panacea, has proved a failure. Voters apparently are unwilling to recall an official unless he has committed crimes in office sufficient to cause him to be ousted by criminal procedure in the courts.

Oakland's latest experience is more a repudiation of the recall than an endorsement of individuals.

The only sure course to good government is for the voters of the city who are in favor of efficient and honest government to organize at least a year ahead of election time. No movement can be won on the spur of the moment. Success will come only after the most thorough organization.

It is still to be hoped that there will be less bickering and a greater spirit of cooperation between those in authority and citizens generally.

If it is true that the Austro-Germans are "digging in" on the Tagliamento, a line nearer Austria than the Piave and the treasures of Venice, it will soon be announced from Berlin that it is all in accordance with pre-arranged plans.

The Marin county deputy constable and traffic policeman who disguised himself as a cow showed a lamentable disregard for the reputation of the cow.

NOTES AND COMMENT

The Colusa Sun tells of the up-country rain: "The rain last night came after a wishing it would by the land owners and cultivators. The wind was high during the rather light rain which was being scattered in mist over the thirsty soil, and being beaten in."

The Russians of the San Francisco consulate are perturbed. Consul General Arseny de Wodzeff resigned because he could not endorse the Bolsheviks; Cyperian Shanowsky, vice-consul, resigned at the same time and for the same reason; but George Romanovsky, an attaché, not only did not quit, but accepted the appointment of consul. It is hoped that this is put down straight, names and all.

The Washington militants who got put in jail for picketing the White House are now to sue the District of Columbia to recover $400,000. This will at least get them as far toward the goal as thrusting banners bearing cryptic expressions in the face of the President, and it is less objectionable.

The Russian deputations have arrived at Berlin. The lions appear to have taken the bandages off, but, it may be assumed, do not permit the Russ dupes to see much farther than when they were on.

The reason, of course, that beet growers have received the attention of Hoover, and that similar attention has not been paid to the growers of other roots, is that sugar is extensively made from the beet. The beet growers were threatening to perform something after the manner of the ship builders, and the attempt is made to head off trouble.

We are proud to record that Duffy Lewis is coming on in the navy, where he has enlisted. He made a two-bagger as a pinch hitter Sunday, which won the game.

Many alterations are reported in which patriotism is involved. If a man wants to start something nowadays he has but to take sides with the Kaiser.

The speed cop does not enjoy universal popularity, and up in Oregon he does not seem to be trying for that distinction. His method of defeating a tire by shooting a hole through it does not make a hit at all.

The latest published letter from Colonel Roosevelt concerning the Fickert recall leaves no doubt that he knew what he was about when he wrote the first one. It was denied that he fully understood the situation.

Now that Americans are performing valiantly in foreign parts there is an inclination to lift the ban that prevents recognition of their heroism by other governments. It is an ultra-democratic idea that an American soldier or official must not accept a decoration for merit, and there is a tendency to relax the rule and pin a ribbon or medal on the worthy breast.

The idea has been advanced to relieve the railroad congestion by shutting down the mills and factories of the country for two weeks. If the product of the mills and factories is not needed over the world, and especially in the war centers, the idea is great. But it is feared a cry would go up if the mills and factories should shut down.

The news that Chicago is gradually becoming "dry" without the usual decision at the polls to that effect is interesting. It is represented that more saloons have gone out of business there than in Los Angeles, with its overwhelming dry majority at a recent election. A good many things are cited to account for it, chief of which are the federal tax and regulation.

A new angle to the booze industry has been established by United Commissioner Knell. It is to the effect that liquor must not be sold to hobnobbers. Besides not contributing to the national effectiveness it is contended that liquor disposed of in such a manner is too likely to find its way to the streets. The law is made in a way to say that "sobriety is always taking the law out of life."

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

There are at present hundreds of people out gathering worms, feeding them to chickens, turkeys and hogs. This saves the wheat for flour. Many are shipping them below and receive $1.50 per 100 pounds for them.—Alvares Prospect.

Reports come in as of fiction between the Parlor Lecture Club and the Fresno Merchants' Association. It appears that the association will this year, as in past years, decorate the electroluxes with Christmas trees during the holiday season. The ladies of the club regard this as a useless expense at this time, and have suggested that the association forego it and contribute the money to the fund for Belgian children or some other war fund. The association cannot see it that way, and the Hypocrite, Parasite and Commanders of the Parlor Lecture Club are saying things. One of them, a dazzling brunette, expressed herself as follows, "The idea of arming these iron lamp posts with green electroluxes when the poor, shivering Belgian children need warm pants!"—Times Mirror.

Beet growers of the delta met in Stockton last Saturday and decided that it would be utterly impossible to raise pink lemons for less than a cent per pound, which would make a market report of two years ago look like a rusty nickel. Then they were glad to take less than half that price and found there was money in it. Wages are higher, but not in proportion to the price of beans. It is all right for the bean growers to get 8 cents for their product if they can, but to say that is the minimum price at which they can be grown profitably reminds one of 56 shoes selling for $10.—Tracer Press.

THINK! THINK HARD. FRITZ!

THE TRAMP IN WAR TIME

A lusty young tramp came out of a house in Greenwich Village with a neat little package in his hand. Turning the corner, he opened it, examined the contents and threw it on top of a garbage can. It contained good, tasty-looking food, which some charitable woman and wasted on him. Then the tramp went from door to door till he collected enough money to make him welcome in a waterfront saloon. Such fellows are more than a burden, they are a menace to unprotected women and children. They "work" houses in the middle of blocks, out of sight and hearing of policemen, and they have reduced "panhandling" to a scientific system. Along that waterfront any able-bodied man not an alien enemy can get work at high wages. The United States Navy is calling for thousands of firemen and other classes for labor. Navy firemen work four hours on and eight hours off a day, which is eight hours a day divided into two watches, and they are well paid, fed, clothed and sheltered.

No lusty beggar should be allowed to roam the streets when work is so plentiful and well paid. Addicts to drink, otherwise fit for work, can get jobs on ships or in the Navy where they will be removed from temptation and can make men of themselves. Our courts and police have never handled vagrancy in a consistent way. In these days, when people are called upon to eat less wheat bread, meat, sugar, etc., the waste of voluntary idleness in the form of the tramp and the professional panhandler should be eliminated. Every man who does not work is a burden on the community in which he lives and his country needs him now, if not in the Army or Navy, then in some productive capacity.

Thousands of loafers are living on their wives, relatives and friends who should be doing their bit in productive fields. We are short of food, ships and supplies for ourselves and our Allies, not because we lack raw materials, tillage land and other natural resources, but because sufficient labor cannot be obtained, though wages are the highest ever known. There are enough men if all of them would work. Work would help them morally and physically, and would help to shorten this war.—New York Commercial.

BIGELOW'S CONVERSION

"An experience of this kind shakes one's faith in the doctrine of non-resistance," declared Herbert S. Bigelow, pacifist leader. He was speaking of the whipping given him by masked men the other night. It does. Fortunately most men and most nations instinctively recognize the fallacy and impossibility of the doctrine that puts the well-meaning, non-resistant at the mercy of the evil, cunning and aggressive man of nation. They do not wait until they are given the treatment of Bigelow before coming to this natural conclusion. Still less do they invite by their public and private course the insatiable aggressor to subject them to his lawless will.

Money advanced by the United States to the now non-existent provisional Russian government is for the most part still here in the form of supplies prepared or preparing for shipment, and it will remain here for a while. ## RECALL IS OPPOSED BY BIG VOTE

The recall was decisively defeated at the polls yesterday by a vote of 23,079 to 9,164. Mayor John L. Davis, in the vote on candidates, as decisively out-distanced all his opponents, receiving twice as many votes as the total received by his three opponents together.

The election continues Mayor Davis in complete control of the city administration, and it is understood that an extensive program of changes to make that control more effective in all departments is purposed by the Mayor and his advisers.

David C. Dutton ran second on the ballot. Anson B. Weeks third and John Calvin Taylor, the Socialist, who ran on an anti-war platform, last.

LARGEST VOTE POLLED AT RECALL ELECTION

The total vote cast was 32,850, out of a registration of 89,000. This is the largest vote ever polled at a recall election in Oakland. The Jackson recall a little over a year ago bringing out only a little over 29,000. The votes were distributed as follows:

For the recall ..... 9,164
 Against the recall ..... 23,079

John L. Davis ..... 20,924
 D. C. Dutton ..... 5,913
 A. B. Weeks ..... 2,576
 J. C. Taylor ..... 1,259

The official total vote cast was 32,898.

These figures were compiled last night by the newspaper staffs from the semi-official precinct returns. City Clerk L. W. Cummings will check over the figures and the city council will proceed immediately to canvass the vote and declare the official returns.

The recall was beaten by approximately 2 1/2 to 1 throughout the city, with the proportion running as high as 5 to 1 in some precincts.

The recall carried in only nine out of the 241 precincts in the city. The

Battle Scenes Will Be Shown by Red Cross

Staff Photographer Foster to Give Talk on War

War as seen by the official staff photographer of the American Red Cross, Professor William T. Foster of Reed College, Portland, will be shown at the Macdonough Theatre Friday evening at 8 p. m., when 10,000 pictures taken along the French battle front from the British lines to Switzerland will be shown in color.

No admission will be charged, the management having donated the theater. No collections or subscriptions will be taken. The pictures are being shown to give at close hand, actual information of what war conditions in the trenches actually are. The display is being made under the auspices of the Red Cross to stimulate interest in the work which that organization is doing and is open to the public.

Professor Foster lived a year in the dug-outs and underground cellars of the battlefield. He was with Pershing and the American Expeditionary forces and has many views taken of the boys sent "over there." The French with their wonderful commissary, British artillery in action, meetings of noted military heads, bombardments, barrage fire as glimpsed through trench openings, the effects of shell explosions, the shells themselves in action—all these and thousands more are to be shown. In addition to the war pictures, Foster will show the activities of the Red Cross in the war zone, the hospitals, the surgeons at work, the ambulance divisions into which many of our college boys went, and a score of other phases of life which Americans are just learning. There will be only one display of these pictures, on the date named. Professor Foster leaves the same night for the south, for the last lap or a flying trip from coast to coast in aid of the Red Cross work.

nine precincts in which the vote was in favor of recalling Mayor Davis were as follows: Precinct 38, Broadway and Ninth street; 105, Westworth and Moss avenues; 106, Santa Clara and Oakland avenues; 108, Fairmont and Kempton; 115, Mandana and Lakeshore; 124, Grand avenue and Perkins; 125, Grand avenue.

MANY SHIFTS ARE IN SIGHT AT CITY HALL

Commissioner of Public Health and Safety F. E. Jackson to be transferred to the department of finance and revenue, vice Edward W. H. Edwards to be transferred to the department of health and safety, vice Jackson.

Commissioner of Streets, Fred Soderberg, to be transferred to the department of public works, vice Morse.

Commissioner F. E. Morse to be transferred to the department of streets, vice Soderberg.

A general survey of the public health and safety department and a shake-up by the new commissioner, Edwards, with the aid of the Civil Service Inspector Joseph Lloyd to be undertaken, and his position consolidated with that of Plumbing Inspector J. H. Eustice.

The above program is anticipated at the city hall as a result of the defeat of the recall and the placing of the Mayor, David-Edwards-Soderberg majority in absolute control. The main purpose of the switch to be made in the city council is the removal of Commissioner F. E. Jackson from the department of public health and safety as a preliminary to a general reorganization and shake-up in the police, health and safety departments.

Mayor Davis, during his campaign against the recall, publicly charged Jackson with having been instrumental in causing the calling of a recall election, and quoted the grand jury reports concerning the police and fire departments in justification of his statements that there should be a "clean-up" in Jackson's department.

The means of effecting the "clean-up" will be the transfer of Commissioner Edwards to the department, and Edwards will then ask the civil service board to make a careful survey and to make recommendations. Civil Service Commissioner George Kaufman, advisor to Mayor Davis, has announced that he will resign from the position on the civil service board and it is generally expected that W. Cribbins, who helped in the Davis fight against the recall, will be named in his place.

Kaufman stated that he would resign as soon as he had "concluded certain matters he had in hand." It is understood that the "matter in hand" is the reorganization of the department of public health and safety. Kaufman has repeatedly stated at meetings of the civil service board that there was grave need of a "clean-up" in Jackson's department, and he has intimated to friends that he has fairly well defined ideas as to the lines along which the reorganization ought to be made most effectively.

Jackson's department is larger than any other two departments combined. Through his office is expended more than 60 per cent of the budget. It also contains considerable patronage.

The department to which it is intended to transfer Jackson has only one job not subject to civil service, that of the city treasurer, which is subject to appointment by the commissioner, with the approval of three votes of the council. City Treasurer William Fitzmaurice is so well entrenched by his expert knowledge of the work and long service that it is unlikely that he will be moved, and Jackson will be completely shorn of any power to give out political plum.

Jackson's appointee, Joseph Lloyd, building inspector, is slated to have Mayor Davis's famous "skiffs" placed under him, it is understood. It is rumored that the changes will not be made in the commissions for a week or ten days. The exchange of departments by Morse and Soderberg may bring about the decapitation of City Wharfinger W. J. Masterson, who has held this position for many years. Soderberg has been casting about to find a place for F. A. Cooley, former city treasurer, and if he takes the commission of public works Masterson's present job may be declared for Cooley.

Rumors that Preston Higgins, secretary to the mayor, had fallen into disfavor and that his job was to be given to a member of the Taxpayers' League, were given little credence at the city hall.

Theaters to Aid Red Cross Special Performances on Friday Appeal Is Promptly Heeded

The theaters of Oakland which are to take part in the local end of the big national movement among theatrical men to aid the Red Cross campaign at the end of the War Council have completed arrangements for the special performances which are to be held on Friday, December 7. The theaters included are the Orpheum, Pantages, the Hippodrome and the Bishop playhouse.

The first three will give special performances at 10:45 o'clock in the morning, and the Bishop playhouse at 2:15 in the afternoon. The money derived from the performances will be devoted to the Red Cross fund. The theater management are donating the playhouses.

The stage hands, musicians and other attaches of the various theaters are giving their time and effort for a similar purpose. The full night programs will be presented by the performers who contribute their efforts with the rest.

The movement, which will result in theaters all over the United States doing the same thing on that date, was originated by Henry P. Davison, chairman of the War Council of the Red Cross. In a letter sent to theater men all over the country he outlined his plan and asked for their co-operation. He received it. Through theatrical associations, circuit heads and other connections the plan was put into operation.

GO AND SWELL FUND. Tickets for the performance may be obtained at Red Cross headquarters, at the box offices of the theaters. Special committees headed by Miss Helen W. Kimball, chairman of the Development Committee, will have charge of the selling of tickets in banks, business concerns and private homes. Persons are to be urged to go to the four theaters mentioned on Friday, and aid in the work of swelling the Red Cross working fund.

It is the expectation of the Red Cross that the performances will be realized throughout the country as a result of this one day's donation. Everyone is urged to attend these special performances, as every cent that goes into the Red Cross office of the four theaters goes directly into the coffers of the Red Cross and insures direct aid for the boys in the trenches.

APPEAL PROMPTLY MET. The letter which Chairman Davison of the Red Cross War Council sent out, reads as follows: "Appreciating the great help that the theatrical profession at large has given the authorities in Washington in diverse ways, since the beginning of the war, and the desire of the craft to further assist by performing a common and signal service for the American Red Cross, the War Council has invited the managers, players and musicians of the United States to devote one performance on Friday, December 7, to raising a great fund for the Red Cross."

"The quick perception of the men and women of the theater in this profession, grasps all that and brings their instant sympathy. The generosity of the members of the profession is proverbial, and in requesting your assistance we are sure of hearty response. Help will be given in each city throughout the United States by everybody connected with the Red Cross, and I am confident that the public will respond in aiding you to put together a large sum of money for this great cause."

WAR TALK IN MEANS' TRIAL RULED OUT

COURTHOUSE, CONCORD, N. C., Dec. 5.—Gaston B. Means, acting as an agent for the German government, gave information which he gained, to the United States government. This testimony was given in the trial of Means here today on the charge of murdering Mrs. Maud A. King.

W. J. Burns, a detective of international repute, declared Means gave him information concerning the Germans and asked that it be communicated to the United States government.

Burns testified that he went personally to Philadelphia and gave to Secretary Joseph P. Tumulty information which Means had given him. Burns declared that Means gave him information concerning the destruction of bridges on the Canadian Pacific railway and of the planned destruction of the Ottawa capital, the witness declared.

The detective also declared that Means told him he took a position with the German government on the understanding that he would give the United States government any information he thought it should have. This testimony was ruled out by the court.

For Eye Comfort Wear "Caltex" Invisible Bifocals

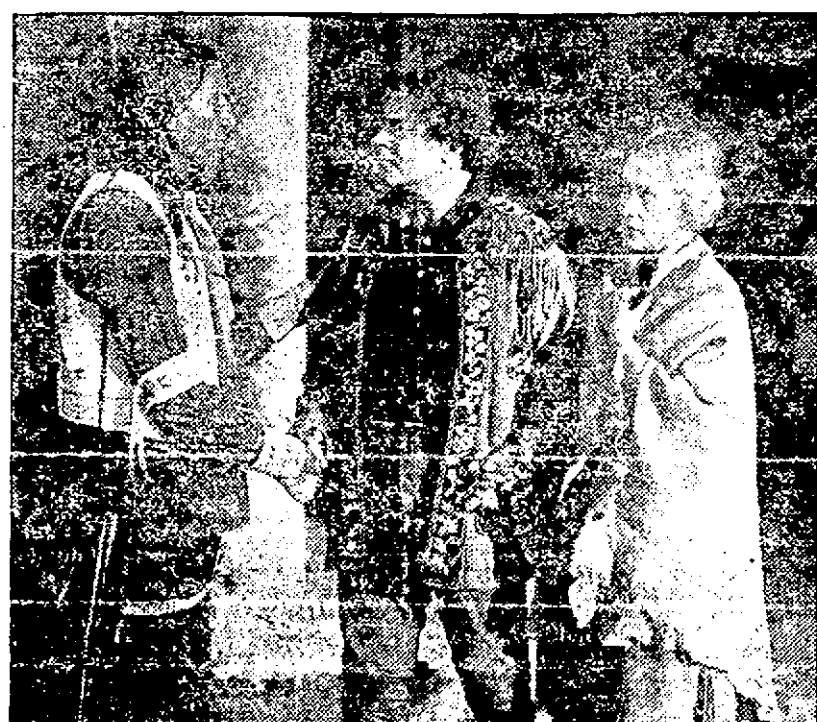

For years the making of glasses for far and near seeing has been going through a system of evolution and not until "Caltex" Invisible Bifocals were perfected has a lens been made that was entirely satisfactory. It is the unqualified opinion of the most expert lens makers that "Caltex" Invisible Bifocals are the best that have ever been produced or likely to be produced in years to come—if ever. For guarding the eyes against strain and increasing their efficiency "Caltex" are unequalled.

SCHOOL TOTS HEAR MURDER TESTIMONY

The details of the slaying of Al Williams by Katherine Vickery were listened to by twenty-five eighth grade children from the Emerson school today. The court room was crowded when the children came in and were examined under the microscope of the judge. They leaned forward in eagerness to not miss a word of the story. The children, accompanied by their teacher, were there for the first time.

It early became apparent that the defense intends to try to prove that the slaying was a case of self-defense. The judge, who was preparing to commit E. J. Smith, a taxi driver, said that she approached him with a pleasant smile when she ordered the machine to call for her the following morning and that there was nothing about her manner to suggest that she was going to drive on a death mission. The next morning when he rang her doorbell she appeared to be quite as unconcerned as if she were going to take a train and had plenty of time. Indeed that is what the driver thought she was doing, he said. Even when she reached the Varney paint shop on Twentieth street and had gotten out and inquired for Williams whom she was intent upon killing, she came back to the machine sufficiently calm to not attract the driver's attention.

SAYS SHE WAS STILL CALM. After they drove around the corner and waited for Williams to appear, and she had followed him into the shop and shot him, and had drunk a vital of coffee, the witness said she was still calm, insisting upon paying the fare and remarking as she gave the driver a ninety-cent tip that she hoped he would have a good time on it. She complained because the man held her too tightly and kicked at one of them. She wanted to go to the police station in the taxi.

The attorneys on both sides kept asking if the witnesses noticed any indications of irrationality. The witness later put an alibi on the stand and propounded to him a hypothetical question which will include the testimony in the case and ask it under such a stress of circumstances the calmness of her demeanor did not indicate a condition of mind such that she was incapable of comprehending the wrong she was bent upon committing.

Deputy Attorney Theodore Witschen in stating the case, made no reference to the burning of her house as she set out on the deadly quest. The defense will attempt to show that the State cannot explain the act and that it was the act of an insane person. The witness said that her home was behind her as she drove away, seemed to weigh upon her not a bit.

The defense introduced testimony to show that she made queer disposition of some of the things in the house. Although she placed several hundred dollars worth of furniture, lamps and set fire to it she took her husband's overcoat to a neighbor's and asked that it be kept for him.

MAY REMAIN SECRET. What her grievance was against the husband and if there was one, that made her seek to destroy it, too, will remain a secret. The witness said that she would rather kill him than have them told to her husband, as she says Williams threatened to tell the world of the slaying, and both sides insist that none of them were carried out with any apparent nervousness or concern.

UNION ELECTS

Officers were elected last night by Shipyard Laborers' Union Local 15430. W. L. Martin being chosen to preside for the coming term. W. E. Sweetser was chosen vice-president. C. C. Briscoe, recording secretary; and A. L. Hansen, financial secretary. The business agents, K. H. Welch and E. Dowling, remain in office automatically, and the inner and outer guards are Thomas O. Randall and E. Dowling respectively.

The local union since March has grown to a membership of 1500, beating San Francisco's record, the union across the bay numbering 1000. The "shop system" of committees in various plants is used by the union.

FOR HARBOR LINE

City officials will attend the hearing of an application by owners of waterfront property on the Leandro Bay and the upper reaches of the estuary for the establishment of a harbor line which will take place before the San Francisco Harbor Line Board Wednesday, December 19, in room 415, customs house. The hearing will be public with Colonel W. H. Fisher, U. S. A., retired, presiding. Mayor Davis stated today that he and Commissioner Morse with representatives from the city engineer's office will attend.

Soldiers to Guard Waterfront Operators Must Give U. S. Data Will Enforce Enemy Alien Law

Soldiers will soon be guarding Oakland's waterfront. A plan similar to that put in force in New York harbor, in which the government detailed armed forces to the work of watching the port, is to be put in force shortly in this city, according to information received today by the Oakland Chamber of Commerce from the committee on public information.

For some time past the need of guards on the waterfront and in the factory district has been urged in the chamber. Recently the manufacturers' bureau received reports of depredations, such as placing emery powder in generator-bearings and other damaging acts in certain Oakland plants. The deeds were laid at the door of enemy aliens and at the lack of a service system under the direction of the bureau was urged. The matter was taken up in committee, but no announcement of the plans made.

A BETTER SYSTEM. It is believed by factory men that the placing of guards on the waterfront may simplify this work. The report from Washington says: "As rapidly as the machinery of the government can be applied to the administration of the service the same military control will be established at all other American ports. The guard is to wear dress uniform to distinguish it from the soldiers in khaki."

The committee on public information has also forwarded the rules of the department of justice regarding the protection of waterfront facilities. In brief, they are:

RECALL OPPOSED BY LARGE VOTE

que and Lenox; 127, Fourteenth and Jackson streets; 128, Fourteenth and Alice streets.

ALL CANDIDATES LOSE IN HOME PRECINCTS

The last-named precinct is that of Mayor Davis himself. A peculiar sidelight is that each of the four candidates, including Mayor Davis himself, was defeated in his own precinct.

There were 10,000 signatures to the recall petition, and this number was cut to 7500 by withdrawals, throw-outs and technical errors. Davis' vote yesterday compares favorably with his vote when he was elected, the total cast at that election being 41,000, with Davis polling 27,000.

This is the third recall to be defeated by the voters in the city. The defense will introduce testimony to show that she made queer disposition of some of the things in the house. Although she placed several hundred dollars worth of furniture, lamps and set fire to it she took her husband's overcoat to a neighbor's and asked that it be kept for him.

So far the testimony has been as to the events leading up to the slaying, and the shooting from the time Williams appeared before Prosecuting Attorney Ezra Deoto and asked to have her restrained in threats to injure him. Not a detail of the story's continuity was lacking, and both sides insist that none of them were carried out with any apparent nervousness or concern.

CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEARS ARE MEATLESS DAYS

The restrictions of meatless Tuesday will not be removed for Christmas or New Year's, both of which fall on that day of the week, was the announcement made today as a result of a telegram received from Herbert C. Hoover, federal food commissioner, by the California food administration. This telegram was sent to clear a widespread report that the ban would be lifted for the two holidays.

In addition, Hoover said that liver, tongue, tripe, kidneys and other byproducts of the prohibited meats came under the ruling of meatless day and that "plenty of variety is afforded in poultry, rabbits and sea foods." The press has been somewhat general that byproducts could be sold on meatless days.

All operators of waterfront facilities must immediately send to the United States marshal of this district the name and address of the proper persons to be served with the necessary orders in regard to safeguarding such properties.

Each operator of a waterfront facility shall employ at his own expense an identification inspector at each entrance to such facility. These inspectors shall be on duty day and night. Their business is to identify to the patrol those who have business on the dock, wharf or waterfront. They shall receive reports of inspectors, truckmen, and the like. The inspectors also shall see that no one enters the waterfront without proper identification.

MUST KEEP RECORDS

All operators of waterfront facilities shall keep a record of all employees for the government. This record must give the name and address of each employee, the nationality, if naturalized, when received, date of employment, and name of former employer. Pass cards will be issued to employees.

Every operator of waterfront facility shall file at once with the United States marshal a list of identification inspectors and of watchmen, giving the duties and hours of the latter.

A complete description of the fire patrol and protection system of each waterfront facility must be filed with the United States marshal.

These regulations are promulgated to carry out President Wilson's proclamation of November 16 forbidding alien enemies from approaching within 100 yards of any waterfront concern.

OAKLANDERS SEEK WILSON'S APPROVAL

Strong opposition having developed to the holding of the big New Year's celebration in Oakland this year in view of the war and the urgency of the demands upon business men for war needs and local charities, a telegram was sent to President Wilson asking if he had any objections to "a patriotic celebration." No reply having been received, Congressman Elston was communicated with and a wire received from him to the effect that in reply from the President was to such a celebration that "it was not object to the proposed festivities."

The wire to President Wilson was as follows: "The Merchants' Exchange of Oakland desires to ascertain the opinion of the government regarding holding of a patriotic celebration in Oakland December 31, 1917. Local conditions as to its advisability is divided. Would appreciate an expression of opinion from United States government regarding celebration of a patriotic character at present time."

According to the announcement the celebration "will be a big downtown display, with an illuminated parade, fire and band music and a big ball at the Auditorium."

Many local organizations, appreciating the necessity of lending every aid toward the prosecution of the war and the care of the drafted men, have this year decided to eliminate celebrations that would entail the unnecessary expenditure of money.

The celebration is being promoted by the Merchants' Exchange and a local newspaper.

SEEKS PROBE OF LIVING CONDITIONS

Plans for a survey of Oakland housing conditions, with a view to systematizing the housing of the increased number of industrial workers, will be discussed by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce soon, and the matter laid before the State Bureau of Housing and Immigration. A survey of the situation by the State board will be sought.

With the settlement of the various labor troubles and the enormous growth of Oakland's factories and arrival of new factories, the need of homes for workers is becoming more and more serious. Five thousand workers, mostly with families, have been added to the city's population within a few months. Good homes at comparatively low rents are their principal need. Commercial organizations are asking the state that the business men and factory men must help solve the problem for their own sakes.

A questionnaire is being sent out to the large industries, asking data on their employees as a preliminary basis for industrial housing. The plan for a commission survey will be urged. The business men will be asked to raise a fund to pay the expenses of this work.

PLAN STATE MEET

Plans for a meeting of representatives of the various Chambers of Commerce of the State, probably to be held in Oakland, are under way today, following the return of Secretary Joseph E. Caine of the Oakland Chamber from a conference in Los Angeles.

The sessions are planned to discuss matters of general interest in the State's industrial field. The preliminary meeting was called by L. D. Sale, president of the Los Angeles Chamber, and President Frederic Koster of San Francisco Chamber.

CLAY IMPROVING.

City Assessor J. Harrison Clay, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is recovering. He will resume his place in his office next week.

Rebuild Your Health on a Sure Foundation

Pepto-Mangan restores strength and vitality by reinforcing the source of all vigor and health—the blood.

Thin, impoverished blood should be suspected if you have to whip yourself to your daily tasks, if your "off-days" are many, if you are pale and listless and if you are losing weight.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan

is the tonic that charges the blood with iron and creates millions of new, strong red blood cells.

Thin, weak blood permits vitality-sapping poisons to develop and to clog the system. Blood that is strong in iron and red cells drives out these poisons and keeps them out.

Thus Pepto-Mangan paves the way for the return of the full joy of living.

If you are cured from overwork or worry—if you have been weakened by illness take a course of Pepto-Mangan; you will soon be feeling better.

Pepto-Mangan is pleasant to the taste and cannot disturb the weakest stomach. For sale at all drug stores.

Friendly Warning: Gude's is the only genuine Pepto-Mangan. Resist counterfeits.

Pepto-Mangan is made by M. J. BREITENBACH CO., New York Manufacturing Chemists

TWO ARE URGED FOR SUPERVISOR

The names of Albert Kluh of Alameda, deputy sheriff and constable, and Samuel J. Donahue, business agent of the Building Trades Council, were given prominence today in the list of candidates to succeed Joseph Kell, now county assessor, as supervisor. Kluh was being mentioned as having considerable strength, and it was stated that strong representations were being made to Governor Stephens in his behalf.

The Building Trades Council last night formally endorsed Donahue for the position, and a telegram to that effect was sent to the governor.

W. W. Humphreys, W. J. Donahue, Constable H. T. Hensted, J. H. Hensted and Frank Smith of Alameda have also been mentioned as candidates.

DIVORCE PLAINT CHARGES FORGERY

Mrs. Maria Lydskesen filed suit for divorce against Walter W. Lydskesen, alleging that she had loaned him $200 during their three years of married life and charging that he had forged her name to notes and mortgages to secure $5000. She further alleges that he remained away from home without accounting for his whereabouts and that he never contributed to the family expenses.

Mrs. Nora A. Kraft charged cruelty in a divorce suit against F. E. Kraft in Judge W. H. Donahue's court today, alleging that he had beaten her for a year. She was given a decree, in addition to $20 a month.

Lucien Delanges won a divorce on his cross complaint against Mrs. Catherine B. Delanges, on cruelty charges, and she was given custody of the children.

STUNTS TO

I HEREBY PROMISE

If you will be a Good Fellow at Christmas, wishful to bring joy to some child who would otherwise suffer disappointment and heartache in being forgotten, fill out the attached blank and either bring or mail it to the Blue Bird Bureau, OAKLAND TRIBUNE. It is for you to decide how many children you can make happy, and in what way you can do it best.

I will be Santa Claus to _____ children (state number you wish to care for). Kindly send me names and ages of children in _____

(State district in which you can work best.)

_____
(Name)
_____
(Street)
_____

Through strictness the tags themselves the workers will avoid expense and save every cent for the soldiers. The tags have been donated by Oakland's printing firms.

Chairman A. Vander Naillen Jr. of the general committee is marshaling his lieutenants for the drive. The campaign committee will be in constant touch with affairs until Saturday. Eight hundred Boy Scouts, the children of Oakland's schools and more than 1000 picked workers from the organizations back of the plan will be on duty on the streets.

The Santa Claus drive has been busy. Besides arranging the "theatrical squad" that will sell tags at the noon hour under the leadership of Miss Sophie Tucker and Miss Nan Halperin, introduced by Harry Cornell and Max Horvick, and the afternoon drive of Jim Post and his bevy of singing salesgirls, there will be "hollyhock stunts" on the streets throughout the afternoon. Magicians will perform tricks to attract the crowds and singers will be heard at prominent corners. Surprises are promised.

"Buy a tag—and help Oakland's boys"—will be the slogan of the day. Stores and business houses will be invaded by the workers. The Marine Corps recruiting office has agreed to help in the work.

GETS WAR MEDAL

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Ambassador Jusserand presented this afternoon to President Wilson a bronze medal from the people of France to commemorate the entrance of the United States into the world war.

On one side there is a pile of fourteen letters, all appeals from children asking that they shall not be forgotten Christmas. On the other side there are four letters, offers from Good Fellows to carry Christmas good cheer to two, three or four children, and asking for the names and addresses of the youngsters.

The proportion is not a good one. At this rate there will be many kiddies in Oakland Christmas morning who will not have known that Santa Claus has been on his rounds, or that there are Good Fellows in Oakland.

The time is getting short. If the Good Fellows are to do their work as they have done it in past years, they must get busy right away. It cannot be done well at the last minute, any more than shopping for your own children can be done well at the last minute. This is not a matter of giving a few cents or a few dollars thoughtlessly, but of giving your thought and good will with your gift, of giving something of yourself. Without this, the gift will be bare.

There was the true spirit of Christmas in a letter received this morning from a woman who has been having a hard time to get along, but who, despite sickness and trouble, managed to send a little money to be used in buying a toy for a child on Christmas. She wrote:

"Children as well as big folks must remember that Santa Claus must visit the boys in France this year, but I think that we should remember Christmas at home, as well."

In all the letters there comes the appeal for some warm clothes. Here is an instance:

"Dear Good Fellow: Christmas is drawing near and as my husband has been ill all summer and is just able to get out to earn a little, with the small boy's help we just live; our house rent is six months behind. We are trying to catch up, and with the little income it is hard. There are six children; they all need clothes. The little one would like toys of some kind. I will thankfully receive anything that is sent to them."

Here is another:

"My Dear Santa Claus: I am a little lame girl. I have three sisters. I am the smallest. You forgot us last Christmas, but we hope you won't this Christmas. I want a baby doll and buggy. One of my sisters wants a coat and fairy tale book. Another wants a sweater and a doll and sewing box. We do not expect all these things, but we tell you so if you should be able to give us anything, you will know what we want. From one of your friends, Marie."

PURCHASES
AT HIGH MARK

Oakland citizens are responding generously to the appeal of the "Blue Bird Bureau" for the purchase of manhood at high mark.

Knowing that the Catholic recreational centers in tending camp and at the front work hand in hand and heart to heart with the Y. M. C. A. Red Triangle "chute" in supplying the social, recreational, educational, mental and moral needs of the men who are fighting for democracy, every one is willing to give his utmost to the war work fund.

Every dollar goes to the soldiers of freedom. Every dollar provides those necessary home needs that keep the hearth and the hands and the brains of men in the work in hand—that of winning the war for America, for humanity.

To date more than $7000 has been invested by Oakland citizens alone, while equally enthusiastic reports come from Berkeley, Alameda, Richmond and outlying districts. A few minutes before Supervisor Joseph M. Kelly was appointed county assessor to succeed the late Charles Horner he wrote a check for $100 and handed it to Supervisor John T. Mullins, a member of the Knights of Columbus Catholic war work fund committee, as his donation to the cause.

H. J. Quinn, division commander of the industrial and business sections of the city, reports a large number of subscriptions.

At the regular noonday luncheon today the following subscriptions were recorded:

Harrington-McInnis, $50; Frank W. Bilger, $50; Burnham-Standford Co., $20; A. K. Goodmunsen, $25; William Makins, $25; Carl Doell, $25; Hoxan Lumber and Mill Company, $25; Joseph J. Rosborough, $25; Stewart & Son, $25; Crescent Corset Company, $10; John W. Stetson, $25; Downey Glass and Paint Company, $15; Sam Bell McKee, $10; Mrs. Laura J. Morehouse, $5; James H. Pedgrift, $5; John F. Mullins, $25; J. F. Mullins and Thomas Costello, $25; W. F. Murray, $10; W. S. Murray, $5; Hazeltine & Lewis, $5; Cobbedick-Kibbe Glass Company, $10; Marymont Millinery, $5.

AS BISHOP

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—"Receive the Holy Ghost."

These words, uttered in Latin, intoned by Right Rev. Archbishop Edward J. Hanna, Roman Catholic metropolitan of San Francisco, today changed Rev. John J. Cantwell from a priest to a bishop, whose new charge in this high episcopacy will be the historic diocese of Monterey and Los Angeles.

A few moments later the splendid choir of St. Mary's cathedral sang the "Veni Creator Spiritus," the Archbishop anointing the head and hands of the new bishop with Holy Chrism, while two chanters sang an Antiphon and Psalm referring to the anointing of the high priest Aaron, the two high churchmen exchanged the "kiss of peace" and the spiritual transition was complete.

Clergymen from all parts of the country mingled with the vast congregation which witnessed the consecration. Beneath the sanctuary lamp gathered the prelates and patriarchs of the Catholic church from all parts of the great West.

The consecration began when the bishop-elect with Archbishop Hanna, consecrator, and two assistant consecrators, Bishops Joseph S. Glass of Salt Lake and Thomas Grace of Sacramento took their places in the chancel. The consecrator was clothed in full pontifical vestments. The assisting bishops were vested in amice, stole and cope and each wore a white linen mitre. The bishop-elect was garbed in amice, alb, cincture and stole, cope and violet biretta or cap.

Next the consecrator took his seat on a foldstool placed on the platform of the altar and facing the people and the bishop-elect and the two assistant consecrators sat on stools at the bottom of the altar steps and facing the consecrator. The necessary documents from Rome were then presented and read by a priest appointed as a notary for the purpose. The bishop-elect then knelt and took an oath that he will visit Rome at the necessary intervals and will faithfully execute all apostolic mandates.

Mass was then begun with the consecrator and bishop-elect alternately reciting the prayers. The bishop-elect was then led to a side altar where the pontifical vestments were placed on him. He then continued the mass simultaneously with the consecrator, until the Epistle was reached.

Going back to the main altar he prostrated himself before the consecrator while the litany of the saints was chanted. The unction of the oils was then made, the new bishop's head and hands being bound so that none of the sacred fluid would escape. The bishop's ring was then placed on the third finger of the new prelate's right hand, and the "kiss of peace" was exchanged between the new bishop and the three consecrators.

SEIZE LOAD OF RICE TO LOWER PRICE

A movement to reduce the price of rice has been started by the United States Customs Service, according to information reaching the local market today.

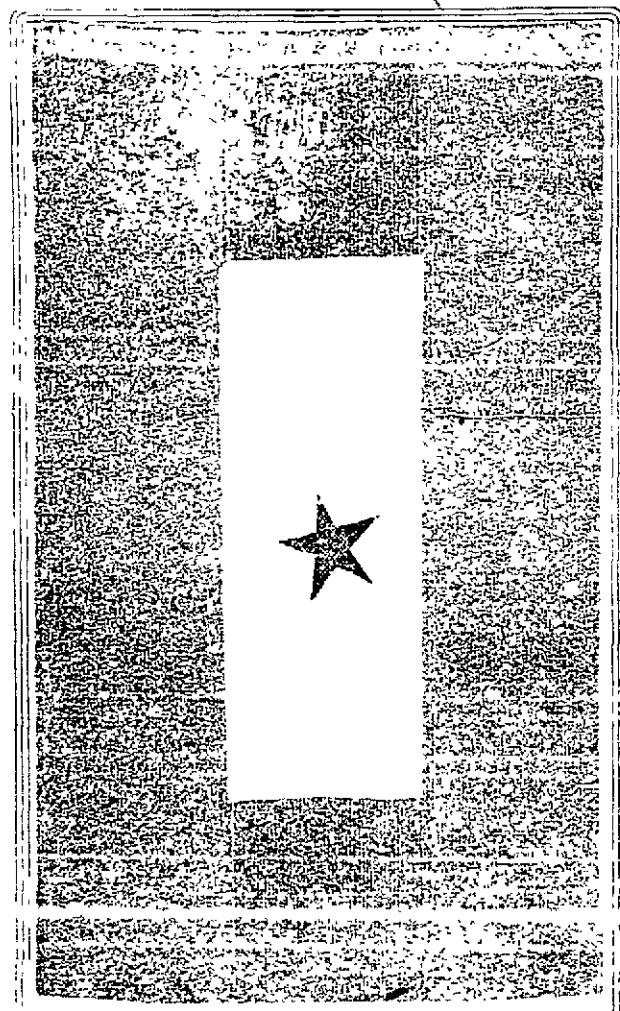

No rice is permitted to leave from this port for any foreign country, and a close check is being kept on the crop. A shipload of rice arriving from the Orient for the Phillips Rice Company, consigned in bond for Mexico via San Francisco, is today in a bonded warehouse, held up from transit south by the government. The rice was commandeered, and will not be permitted to leave the country. The Mexican buyers contested the action, which was, however, authorized in wired instructions from Washington.

Many large firms which purchased rice grown in California at $5 per sack, expecting to sell it around $7, probably will meet with losses, as it is intimated that food administration headquarters that a curb will be put on such a price under the federal license plan. Rice is now moving at from $6.50 to $6.75 a sack, and retailing at from three to five pounds for 25 cents, according to quality. Through the plan of holding all rice from exporters, the food administration expects to drop the price within a short time.

EX-WIFE ACCUSES

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 5.—A. B. F. Orr, said to be a prominent Californian, is under arrest here today charged with threatening to commit a felony. The warrant was sworn to by Mrs. Della Hedler, who is said to be Orr's former wife.

According to Mrs. Hedler, Orr threatened to shoot her Monday, when she met him to settle some of their affairs. Orr declares the woman has several thousand dollars' worth of his diamonds and that he met her to get her to give them up. He denies he threatened to kill her.

Did Your Loved One Answer
His Country's Call?

If so, display a Service Flag in the front window of your home

A Noted Statesman Says:—

"Thousands of homes in this city are rightly entitled to special honor and special distinction because they have contributed men—husbands, sons and brothers—to the military service of the country. It is with a feeling of respect and admiration one passes a house from which a man has gone to join the fighting ranks. The service flag in the window is a symbol of sacrifice that is noble and inspiring. It is at once a challenge of and a rebuke to disloyalty. It is an eloquent lesson in patriotism. The display of the service flag has not become general. This is a plea to put up the service flag. It is the symbol of service and the badge of devotion to the national cause."
